THE CARDINAL

1966

Shelby-Tennant
Community School

Shelby
Iowa

The 1966 Cardinal Annual is dedicated to the memory of Miss Karen M. Petersen. Miss Petersen was Junior High Mathematics and English teacher at Shelby-Tennant Community School until her death April 16, 1966.

An active citizen of the communities in which she lived and taught, she was a friend to her students and faculty. Her dedication to her profession contributed to her value as an instructor.

Student Council

PROJECTS OF COUNCIL INVOLVED SEVERAL ACTIVITIES

Activities sponsored by the Council included Homecoming, the suggestion box, and the election of the 1966-67 Student Council President. In April, three members attended the District Student Council Convention in Audubon. They were Janice Preuss, Pat Linn, and Caroline McLaughlin.

The Student Council was also responsible for selecting and picturing a student for the Cardinal Spotlight shown in the first floor hall showcase. These students were spotlighted for their high achievements: Bill Nollen, Gary Schnack, Dixie Luxford, and Tim Flemming.

Officers of the Council are: Caroline McLaughlin, President; Chuck Martens, Vice-President; Pat Linn, Secretary; Larry Young, Treasurer; and Bob Mortensen, Reporter.

Homecoming 1965

Homecoming festivities for 1965 were held September 30 and October 1. Events were arranged by the Student Council.

Thursday night a bonfire and pep rally were held. The class attendants and the Homecoming King and Queen candidates were introduced and they lit the bonfire with torches. The football team was also introduced and short talks were given by the coaches and players.

Following the football game Friday night, the Homecoming King and Queen were crowned in the gymnasium. The theme was "Blue Velvet." Following the coronation, a dance was held with music by the Impalas.

Freshman attendants—Paula Messerschmidt, David Dittmer. Sophomore attendant—Diane Zimmerman. Junior attendants—Dennis Lewis, Pat Linn. King—Bill Nollen. Queen—Caroline McLaughlin. King and Queen candidates—Doug Robinson, Pat Babbitt, Tim Flemming, Dixie Luxford, LeRoy Evans, Bernadine Cox. Sophomore attendant—Bob Mortensen (not pictured).

The Library Club is a new organization consisting of these nine members who met monthly. The purpose of the Library Club was to form rules and to discuss ways to improve our library. Kristi Andersen was President and Secretary was Linda Stortenbecker. Several members and their sponsor, Mrs. Crane, attended the State Convention of Student Library Assistants held in Des Moines.

Members are: Linda Stuhr, Janet Stortenbecker, Bernadine Cox, Diane Zimmerman, Linda Stortenbecker, Gary Dahl, Sharon Schade, Mrs. Crane (Librarian), Becky Martens, Kristi Andersen.

"Learning to Do, Doing to Learn, Earning to Live, Living to Serve." Projects of the Shelby chapter of the Future Farmers of America were aimed at fulfillment of this motto.

In October, Duane Hursey, Don Falk, Doug Blumer, and Jim Dea attended the National FFA Convention in Kansas City, Missouri. The State FFA Convention was attended by Duane Piittmann, Steven Bladt, Rick Goodner, and Galen Schumacher.

A successful Safe Corn Harvest Project conducted by the chapter received a bronze award from the state department. The chapter also received a third place award at the County Fair Welding Contest.

In January the annual FFA Parent-Son Banquet was held. The honorary Chapter Farmer Degree was awarded to Delmar Von Eschen for his support of the chapter. Slides of the members projects and activities were presented and explained.

Awards received by chapter members this year included:

Duane Hursey—Leadership; Sheep Farming; DeKalb Corn Award; DeKalb Agricultural Accomplishment Award.

Larry Young—DeKalb Corn Award.

Rick Goodner—Chapter Farmer Award; Swine Farming Award.

Donald Falk—Safety.

Matt Rieber—Dairy Farming; Poultry Farming.

Danny Hall—Outstanding Greenhand Award.

FOOTBALL CHEERLEADERS
Diane Burmeister, Sharon Schade, Dixie Luxford, Lois Robinson.

An exceptionally enthusiastic group of cheerleaders boosted school spirit as they led cheers at pep rallies and sports events. New uniforms and good sportsmanship contributed to their fine performance. Their captain was Dixie Luxford. A highlight of their year was the planning of the Athletic Banquet.

Thanks are extended to the Farmers' Savings Bank and the Shelby Community Club for financially supporting the building of the crows' nest on the football field. Designed and constructed by Mr. Harold Norman, it was completed in the early fall of 1965. It received extensive use by the game announcers with the public address system and by the coaches.

A football team could not function without its coaches and student managers. Two of the football coaches are Gene Hinrichsen, Head Coach, and Larry Mitchell, Assistant Coach. Standing are the student managers for the football season, Bill Donaldson and Ron Myers.

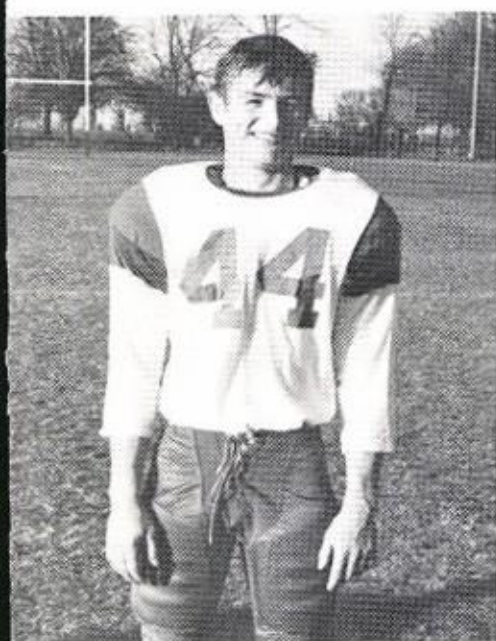

Dixie Luxford displayed her artistic talent by creating posters such as this. Throughout the athletic season, the cheerleaders mounted displays in the hall to arouse school spirit.

The two cheerleaders, Dixie Luxford and Diane Burmeister, were responsible for the planning of the Athletic Banquet. Following the pot-luck supper, Ed Nelson, master of ceremonies, introduced the speaker, Mr. Bernie Saggau of Boone. He is with the Iowa High School Athletic Association. Letters were awarded to students who participated in sports. Row 1: Mr. Saggau, Diane Burmeister, Dixie Luxford, Gene Hinrichsen. Row 2: Harlan Heidelbergbauer, Larry Mitchell, Mr. Nelson.

Coaches Larry Mitchell, Gene Hinrichsen, and Harlan Heidelberg encouraged the S-T athletes in sportmanship and teamwork. Together the coaches and the students worked for teams to be proud of.

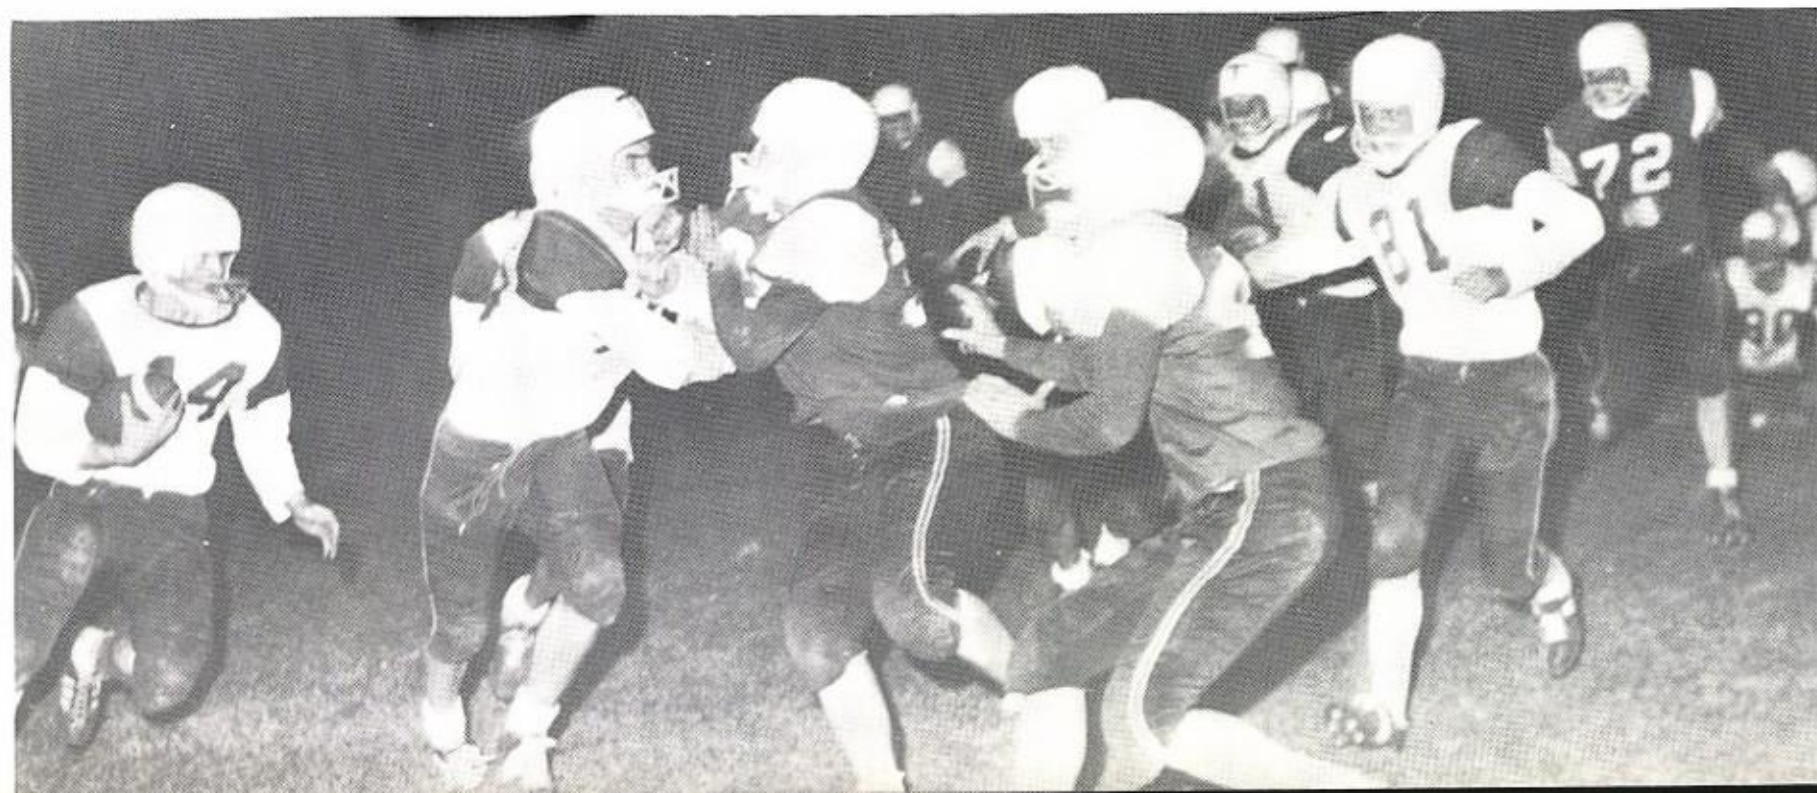

Mike Schafer, senior, received several honors as an outstanding football player. Mike was named to the All-Southwest Iowa First Team, All Conference First Team, and All-State Honorable Mention. He was the leading ground gainer for the All-Southwest Iowa team with 102 points and 1620 yards.

At the Walnut game, Bill Nollen blocks for Mike Schafer who is carrying the ball for another touchdown.

For the artists of the school, Mrs. Stevenson's art classes contained many new doorways to unknown knowledge. There were the pastels, water colors, pencil sketches, and the beautiful collages that many so artfully produced. Students displayed samples of their work at the annual Art Exhibit in May. High school art students experienced an interesting trip to the Joslyn Art Museum in Omaha.

Eugene McCool and Jim Dea are shown demonstrating their exhibit to some of the many visitors who attended the Science Fair. Following the local fair, students attended the Hawkeye Science Fair in Des Moines. Projects were entered by Allen Huneke and Bill Donaldson who both received Honorable Mention awards. Others attending the Hawkeye event were Jim Kroll, Rick Jensen, Eugene McCool, and Bill Luxford.

(Center Right)

Remedial reading was a new program initiated in the elementary grades. Through the Elementary and Secondary Education Act, the project received new equipment and supplies. Taught by Mrs. Clinton Bothwell, students in grades one through six participated in classes to improve their reading ability.

(Lower Right)

Drivers Education was offered to students in the ninth and tenth grades. Thirty-two class hours and six hours of driving were required to complete the course. Pictured with the car provided by the Harlan Auto Mart are Jeff Rihner, Mr. Hinrichsen, Mark Dahl, and Doug Blumer.

(Top Left)

In February a NASA Space Demonstration was presented by Mr. Bolling Smith with the assistance of Mr. John Bowman. Among the exhibits were models of various space devices, satellites, and space probes.

(Top Right)

Throughout the year many students thought of college. For the seniors it was a year of decisions and commitments. Here Kristi Andersen discusses Central College with their representative, C. C. Buerkens.

(Center Left)

February brought forth the sixth annual style show with the theme "Sweethearts of the Year." Shown here are Sheryl Hockett, Linda Peterson, Karen Wendt, Diane Burmeister, and Sharon Schade modeling dresses they made.

(Lower Left)

Miss Hentsch presented Sharon Schade the Crisco award. At the left is Karen Wendt who was the recipient of the Betty Crocker Homemaker of Tomorrow award.

(Top Left)

Here is where it all begins. The days spent in kindergarten with Mrs. Bragg start the students on their way to new experiences and adventures.

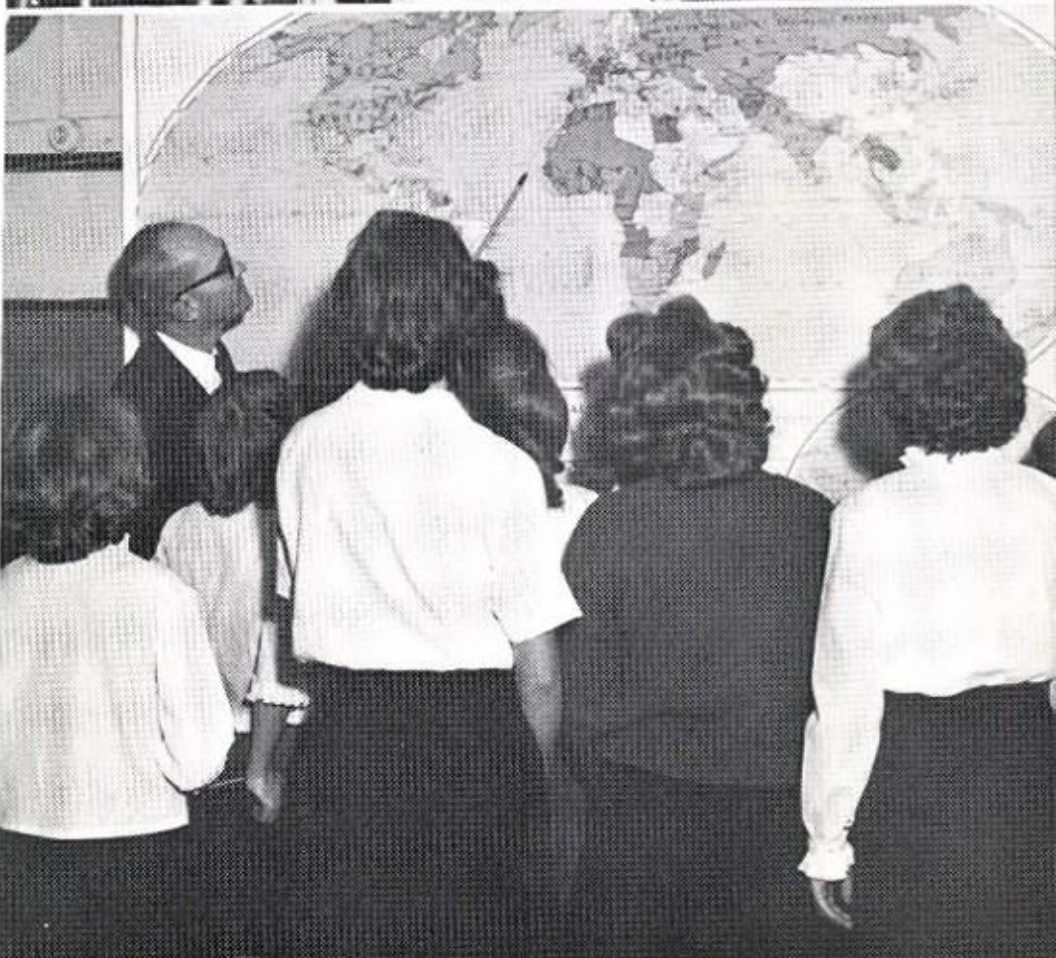

(Top Right)

Another lunch line forms for one of the delicious meals prepared and served by our school cooks.

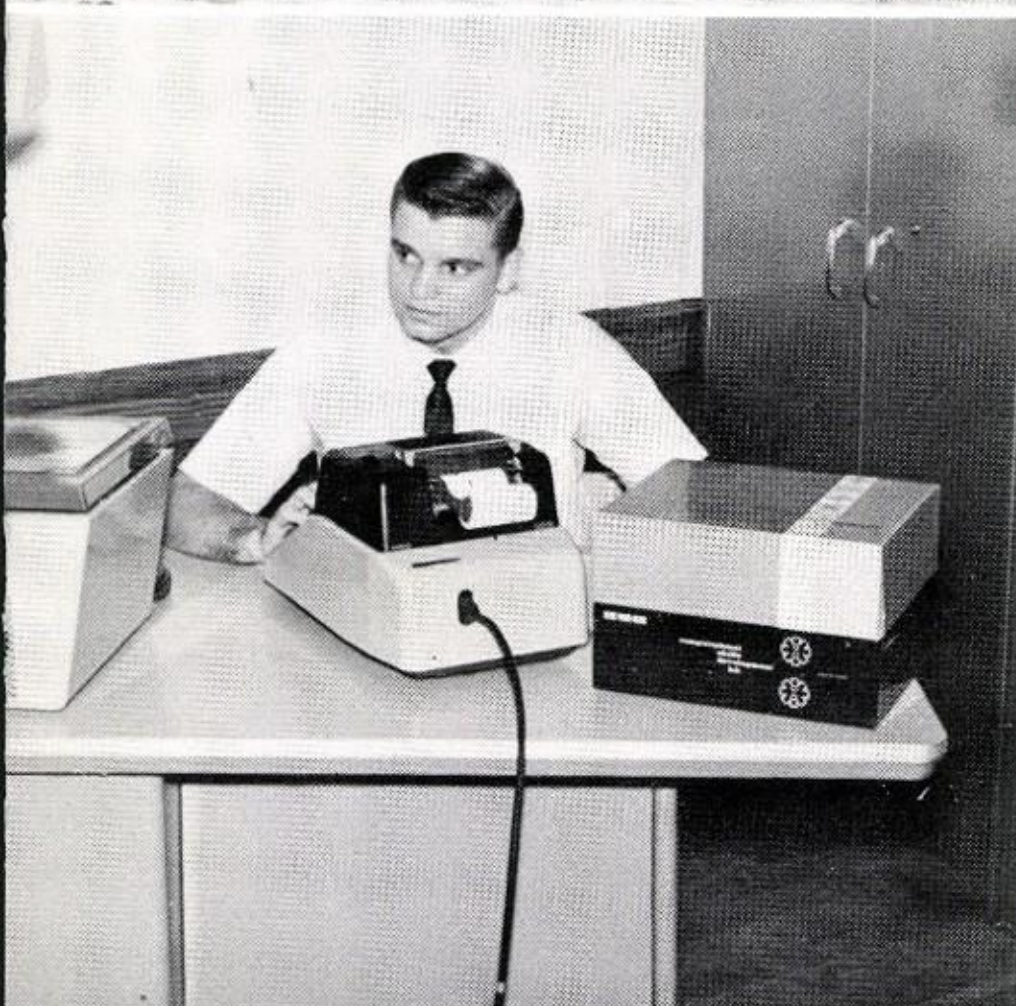

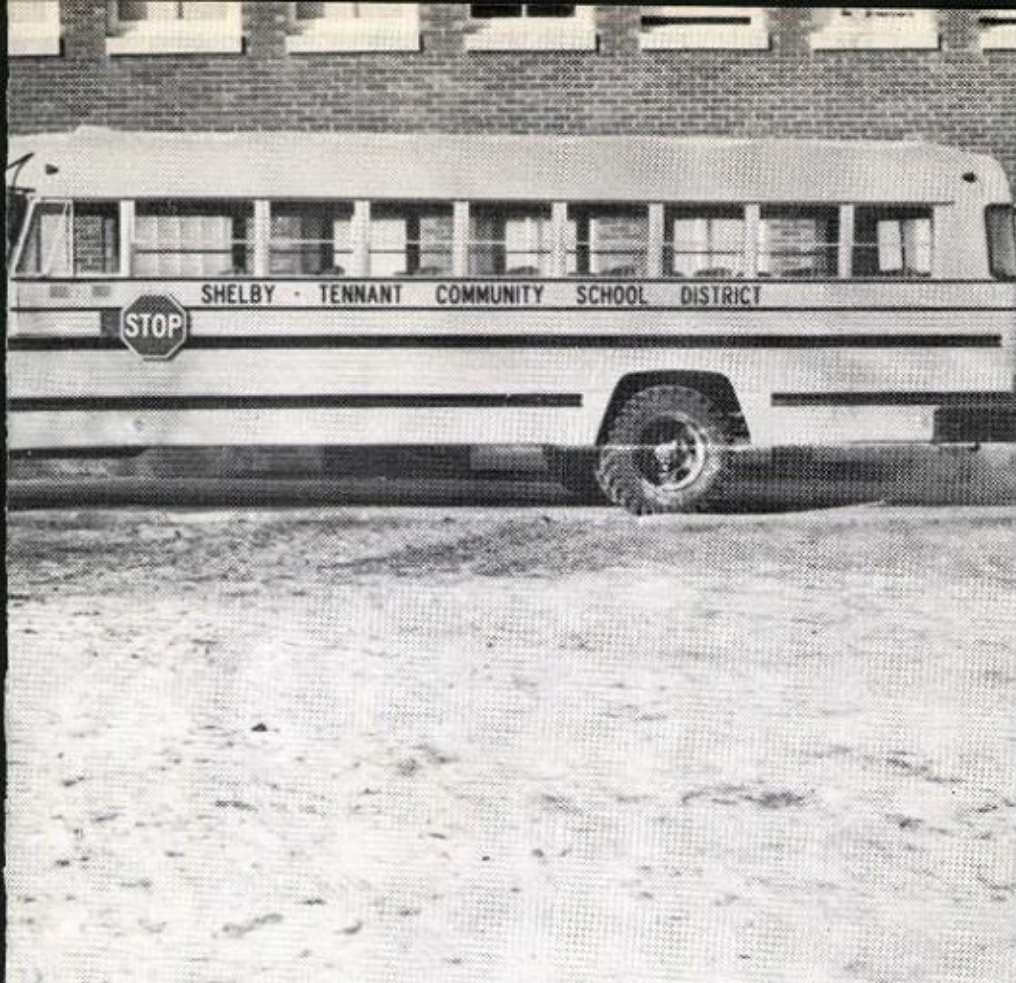

(Center Right)

(Lower Right)

Everyone studies maps in social studies classes. Mr. Mitchell points out a place of interest to several of his junior high students.

(Top Left)

A new 54-passenger bus was purchased in the fall. Driven by Donald Volkens, the bus was used on route 5.

(Center Left)

General math students enjoyed using the six new calculators obtained for their class. Mr. Dale Schoenefeld joined the faculty in April as a junior high math and science instructor.

As a money-raising project, the junior class operated the concession stand at athletic events. Debbie McGee and Bev Wyatt operated the popcorn machine at football games.

"Moonlight and Roses" was the setting for the Junior-Senior Banquet held April 30. The pink and silver decorations included a wishing well (Top Left), rose trees (Second Left), and a garden scene. The banquet was served by the following sophomores (Third Left): Row 1: Rick Jensen, Diane Zimmerman. Row 2: Gene Thies, LaVerne Evans, Nancy Evans, Nancy Pike, Donna Ehlers, Nancy Plagman, David Robinson, Eugene McCool.

Chuck Martens was master of ceremonies for the program and welcomed the guests. Doug Robinson responded for the seniors. The girls' trio (Lower Left): Kathy Kern, Dixie Luxford, and Caroline McLaughlin, sang two songs. Gary Schnack read the class will and prophecy. The invocation was given by Mr. Lynn McBride and Pat Plagman gave the benediction.

Records for dancing were provided by Mr. Johnny Mitchell, a disc jockey from Omaha. Following the dance, a movie was shown in the junior high room. Breakfast was served by local businessmen.

On May 8, the senior class and their sponsors (Opposite Page, Center Left), Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Pike and Mr. and Mrs. Harold Norman, began a two-day trip to Colorado.

A tour of Colorado Springs was highlighted by a visit to the Broadmoor Hotel and a tour of the United States Air Force Academy. In Denver the group visited the Denver Museum of Natural History, Denver Wax Museum, and Denver Mint (Opposite Page, Top Left).

The Continental Trailways bus returned the group to Shelby at 2 a.m. May 11 (Opposite Page, Lower Left).
